

COLLINGWOOD MINOR BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

COACHES WANTED

Collingwood Minor Baseball Association is looking for responsible, caring adults to help coach in our league.

Training is provided to both new and returning coaches.

As a new coach, you must take an introductory course on line as well as attend an initiation clinic. All coaches are required to sign up at www.nccp.baseball.ca. (Select and Rep coaches require more clinics.)

Visit www.collingwoodminorbaseball.teamsnapsites.com for more details.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. How do I volunteer?

A. At the time of your initial registration, you can indicate your willingness to be a volunteer/coach. Or contact us at INFORMATIONCMBA@gmail.com. The convenor of the division you have chosen will be in contact to discuss filling out a Coaches Form as well as getting a valid Criminal Record Check completed which includes a Vulnerable Sector Screening. All information will be submitted to the Executive Committee for approval.

Q. I cannot commit full time but still want to volunteer... how can I help?

A. We understand everyone has different availabilities surrounding their volunteering as a coach. If you are unable to be the head coach due to potential scheduling conflicts, we would still welcome your help as an assistant coach. Please indicate your interest on the registration form at the time of registration. We also require Team managers and volunteers for a variety of events throughout the season.
